

Al-Manaar's Emergency Measures in regard to the Coronavirus Pandemic

During these challenging times, Al-Manaar will be providing the following daily services to the community

1

Telephone Counselling service for those who need it, especially those suffering from isolation. Our Professional Therapeutic Counsellors can be reached on: 07771545581 or by email at: Nacera@mchc.org.uk

2

For Religious Advice and Guidance Please contact our Imams at: Samer.Darwish@mchc.org.uk . If you prefer a phone call, please send your telephone number and the Imam will call you back

3

Al-Manaar is one of the main "Distribution Hubs" in the Royal Borough of Kensington and Chelsea. To donate dry food and toiletries, please call Al-Manaar Centre on: 02089641496 or the Care-Taker, Mr. Hussein, on: 07754271744

4

To report elderly people in isolation, contact Age-UK Kensington & Chelsea on 020 8969 9105 www.aukc.org.uk Distribution of donations from Al-Manaar Centre is taking place in coordination with Age-UK Kensington and Chelsea. To effectively manage this, we are using Age-UK as the main referral point

5

To volunteer, Volunteer Centre K & C on: 020 8960 3722 www.vckc.org.uk

6

Doctors and Nurses at St. Mary. and St. Charles Hospitals are welcome to approach us for provision of cooked meals by sending an email at: Kitchen@mchc.org.uk:

7

Likewise schools in Kensington and Chelsea still open for key workers' children can approach us in the same way as in No. 6 above.
